The U.S. Army Brass Quintet

Formed in 1972, The U.S. Army Brass Quintet is unique among today's professional brass quintets in that four of the five members have been together since 1978. Over the years, the group has performed for practically every major national and international music convention in the United States. Their travels have taken them to Europe, Asia, Australia and across North America.

The group has premiered numerous compositions for brass quintet and have generated countless new arrangements for this growing medium. Their recordings, television appearances and live radio broadcasts in both the United States and Great Britain have brought their music to millions.
